B2B 2012: Hot, humid and a big hit, as always

More than 6,000 runners, including three Olympian legends, beat steamy conditions to finish the 15th annual TD Beach to Beacon 10K on Aug. 4.

Cape Elizabeth native and race founder Joan Benoit Samuelson was among those who ran the 6.2-mile course from Crescent Beach to Portland Head Light, and she invited fellow running greats Bill Rodgers and Frank Shorter to join her.

For more photos and a list of Cape Elizabeth race participants, please see pages 4 and 5. And look for a list of Cape participants and other race coverage in the next issue of The Cape Courier.

Shore Road Path progresses on schedule with ‘no surprises’

By Wendy Keeler

Every summer, Beach to Beacon racers own the limelight on Shore Road, but this year runners have had to share some of the attention with another entity making its way down the coastal road: the Shore Road Path.

Installation of the 2.2-mile path, which starts at Fort Williams Park and will extend to the Town Center, started in June and should be completed in October, town officials say.

“We’re very pleased with the progress the contractors have made. There have been no surprises,” Cape Elizabeth Public Works Director Robert Malley said on Aug. 2. “We hope to have the path substantially completed by the end of September.”

In June, crews from L.P. Murray & Sons started work on the path near Fort Williams Park. By late July, much of the path between Fort Williams and Pond Cove had been paved, and in early August, crews were busy installing portions of the path from the Olde Colony Lane area south toward the center of town.

Final phase of project

Five areas of the path will require retaining walls, which will be installed in the final phase of the project.

“The culvert crossing at Pond Cove will require a bridge which will be fabricated and then installed on site,” Malley said.

“Most of the path will be done before October, but we have to order those stand-alone pieces, and there’s a little less predictability of the timing of those specific items,” Cape Elizabeth Town Planner Maureen O’Meara said on July 30.

Even before sections were paved, people were making use of the path.

“We’re seeing a lot of people running on it and walking on it, and it’s not even done yet,” Malley said.

Joan Benoit Samuelson, the 1984 Olympic marathon gold medalist who grew up in Cape, ran on the path the morning of Aug. 3. The following day, the path got more use during the TD Beach to Beacon 10K, the race she founded, when spectators took advantage of Shore Road’s new addition.

Residents of neighborhoods along Shore Road, who have had to contend with one-way traffic on weekdays this summer, have watched the progress unfold outside their car windows.

In some sections, the path is separated from the road by grassed esplanades, and in others by wooden guard rails. Some portions of the pathway will be separated by a gravel shoulder and others by asphalt curbing. The elevation of the path varies in places, depending on the adjacent topography.

“We worked within the public right of way along Shore Road and we tried to maintain a 2- to 5-foot separation between the

Family Fun Day Committee extends thanks

The members of the Cape Elizabeth Family Fun Day Committee would like to thank all those folks who made this year's event such a great success.

We had a great turnout and raised quite a bit of money for Cape Elizabeth charitable groups and booster clubs.

The day would not be possible without the support of the town, including our outstanding Police, Fire, Rescue and Public Works departments, as well as the folks in Town Hall.

This year's food and games booths were outstanding and added to the enjoyment for all who attended. Without the volunteer efforts of everyone who helped build, set up, and run those activities, none of it would be possible.

Thank you to everyone who participated, and we look forward to an even better event next year.

To Volvo owner who plowed across lawn: 'Do the right thing'

If you're out there, you know who you are. Did you wake up the morning of Wednesday, July 25, look at the damage to the passenger side of your Volvo and remember what happened the night before? Are you missing the front side bumper?

That's because it ripped off as you plowed through our bushes and across our lawn when you missed the left turn from Hunts Point Road onto Salt Spray Road just before midnight the night before.

The screech, then the impact, then you peeling out woke and frightened both kids and adults in the surrounding houses. Your tire tracks left gouges in our lawn at just the spot where our 12-year-old son plays catch.

From the damage you left behind, you had to have been traveling well above the 25 mph posted speed limit, and had this occurred during the day, you would have severely injured or killed him, had he been there.

So stand up. Do the right thing and take responsibility for your actions.

Councilor Sullivan urges residents to back new library building

Our beloved Thomas Memorial Library is becoming the focus of a great deal of attention, and deservedly so.

Severe deficiencies exist with the physical structures, and, in November, the voters will be asked to approve $6 million for a new building.

Given the population of our town, the TML is one of the most heavily used public libraries in Maine and averages 1,600 visits a week. Our biggest user groups are pre-kindergarten children and citizens over 50 years old. The TML has provided Cape residents with both a sense of community and a sanctuary for lifelong learning since opening in 1919.

On May 31, the Town Council hosted a "conversation with the public" about the proposed new library project. Citizens speaking at a packed Town Hall that night were overwhelmingly in support of a new building, though some expressed concerns about the impact on property taxes.

The debt (mortgage) cost for the new library for the peak year is $570,000. A project built in 1994 will have its debt paid off the same year as the library borrowing. The final debt payment for the earlier project is $577,677; therefore the new debt for the library is a wash in debt service costs and will not increase taxes.

The library board of trustees is hosting tours of the library through October. I urge all Cape citizens to see for themselves why a new building is so desperately needed - now, and for Cape Elizabeth in the 21st century.

Town Councilor Jessica Sullivan

Safety repairs to start at Thomas Memorial Library; adjacent town building to be demolished

The town is spending about $9,000 for safety repairs on the oldest part of Thomas Memorial Library.

Repairs will be made to porch railings and doors and for walkway repairs, and some spot painting will be done on the building connecting the two library sections.

Town Manager Michael McGovern also has recommended to the Town Council that the town-owned building adjacent to the library at 7 Holman Road, be demolished. The cost to tear it down and dispose of materials is estimated at $15,000.

McGovern said the money for these jobs would come from $36,000 remaining in a building maintenance account established last year with $50,000.

Library Director Jay Scherma and Facilities Director Greg Marles met with McGovern July 17 to determine necessary safety measures and to review the status of the Holman Road house, which McGovern said "needs too much money to render habitable."

Nomination papers available for Town Council, School Board seats for Nov. 6 election

Nomination papers for the Nov. 6 town election are available at the town clerk's office at Town Hall.

Three seats on the Town Council and three seats on the School Board will be up for election. They are currently held by Councilors Sara Lennon, Jessica Sullivan and Jim Walsh; and School Board members John Christie, David Hillman and Mary K. Williams-Hewitt.

All are three-year terms.

Papers are due Friday, Sept. 7.

Town hiring crossing guards for schools

The Cape Elizabeth Police Department is looking for crossing guards for Pond Cove Elementary School and Cape Elizabeth Middle School.

The job involves helping students cross Scott Dyer Road to the schools for an hour in the morning and 45 minutes in the afternoon.

Applications can be found on the department's website at www.capeelizabeth.com/government/departments/police/home.html or from the clerk at the police station at 325 Ocean House Road between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. daily.

Trail of the Month: Winnick Woods

This is the third in a series of articles on the Greenbelt system of open space and trails in Cape Elizabeth. These trails are constructed and maintained by the Cape Conservation Commission, an all-volunteer, seven-member board that reports to the Town Council and is dedicated to preserving and promoting public access to the open spaces of Cape Elizabeth.

By Garvan D. Donegan
Conservation Commission chairman

The 71-acre parcel that is Winnick Woods was donated to the town of Cape Elizabeth by Alice Larrea in the 1990s for preservation, in memory of her family, the Winnicks.

The trailhead, with an eight-space gravel parking lot and kiosk, is located on Sawyer Road.

These trails are popular jogging and nature observation trails, with residents enjoying access to Cross Hill Trails, Dyer Hutchinson Trail conservation easement (Cape Elizabeth Land Trust-owned), and Leighton Farms Trails. There are planned connections into the Eastman Meadows trails and future open space.

Comprising a 1.7-mile trail loop through Winnick Woods, the trail boasts extensive wetlands, woodlands, ponds, meadow features, and an impressive array of New England wildlife.

The trail begins in a wooded enclave that rises to an open meadow for approximately 400 feet upon entering the interior slope of wetlands and woods.

The trail gives way to unique sloping and hill characteristics, which are accentuated with stone walls and small rock crops.

The presence of both moderate and steep grades makes for greater hiking conditions.

Along with this, several elevated bridges and boardwalks have been constructed and provide great access to other greenbelt trails such as Cross Hills Trails, which is comprised of 105.8 acres of forested wetlands, a pond, and bridges and boardwalks passing through scenic wildlife habitat areas.

What to watch for

Consistent with the Winnick Woods Master Plan, a 15-acre chunk on the northwestern corner of Winnick Woods has been set aside for a habitat management project.

This corner is adjacent to a 10-acre parcel owned by the Department of Inland Fisheries & Wildlife. In partnership with the wildlife department, the state Forestry Service, and various other organizations, the Conservation Commission will begin to conduct a habitat renewal and restoration effort.

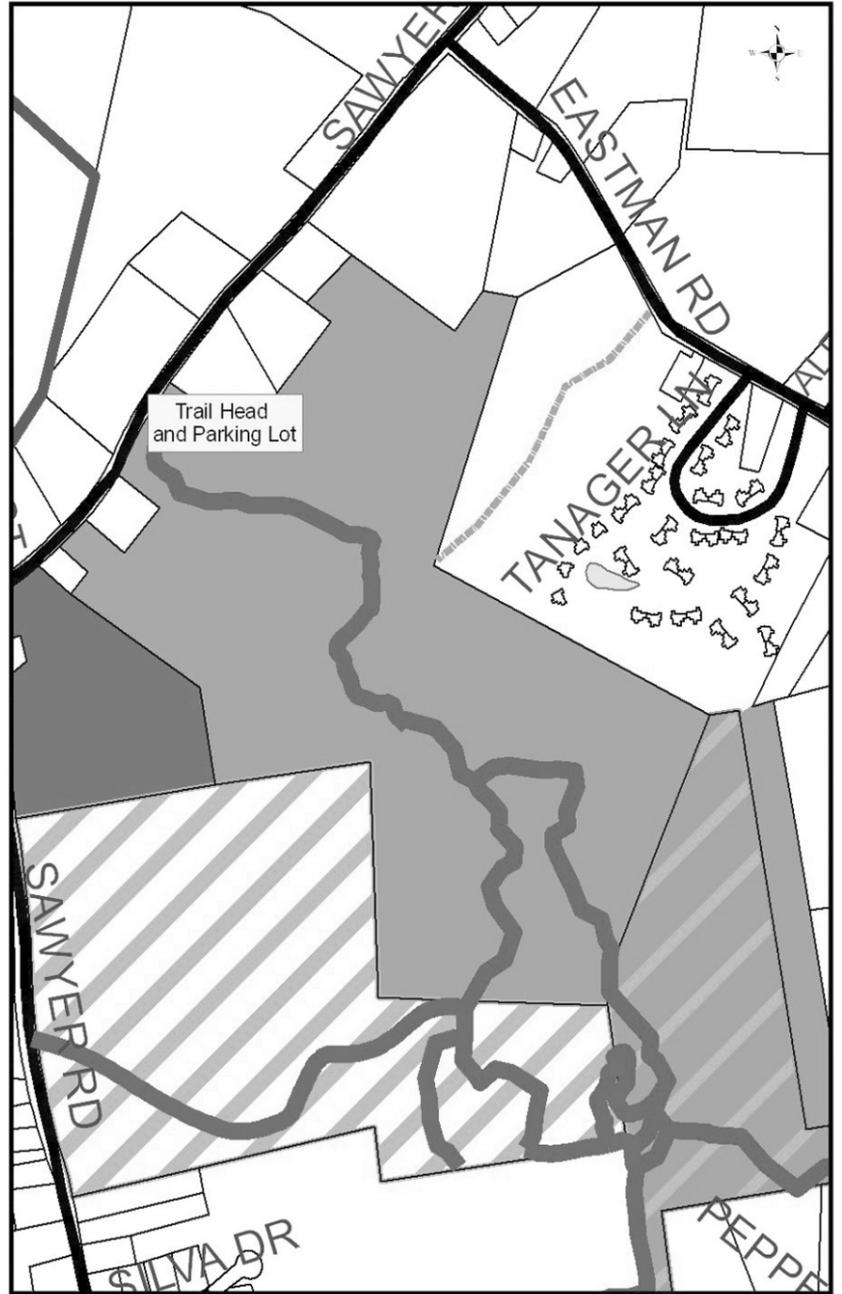

Through shrubland management the hope is that young shoots in the spring will yield good feed and habitat. The shrub-land landscapes of Winnick Woods will provide excellent opportunities for an increase in local biodiversity of wildlife, including varieties of bird and plant species.

The Cape Elizabeth Conservation Commission is pleased to continue this series to highlight the town's Greenbelt and open spaces.

The Conservation Commission is dedicated to the preservation and the promotion of access to the open public spaces of Cape Elizabeth.

The commission meets on the second Tuesday of each month in the Town Hall and residents are always welcome.

(Map prepared by the town Planning Office)

The 71-acre Winnick Woods offers trailgoers a chance to enjoy extensive wetlands, woodlands, ponds, meadows and a variety of wildlife.

Citizen Police School starts Sept. 13

The Cape Elizabeth Police Department, in collaboration with other Cumberland County communities, is offering an eight-week Citizen Orientated Policing School starting Thursday, Sept. 13.

Classes will be held from 6 to 8:30 p.m. on Thursdays. Topics will include:

The Role of the Police Officer, The Hiring Process, Police Ethics, Juvenile Justice, Dealing with the Mentally Ill, Domestic Violence and Diverse Ethnic Groups, Patrol Procedures, Criminal Investigations and Use of Force.

The C.O.P.S. program is intended to be an overview of the functions and operations of law enforcement personnel. Participants will not be trained as police officers.

The Cape Elizabeth Police Department is accepting applications for the Citizen-Orientated Policing School starting now through Sept. 1. Class size is limited and will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis.

A background check will be performed on all applicants. Applicants with felony convictions or extensive criminal backgrounds will not be accepted.

For an application, stop by the police station, or contact Officer Mark Dorval at 767-3323, ext. 208.

Drug Take Back Day set for Sept. 29

Cape residents can bring in their unused and unwanted prescriptions and over-the-counter medications to the Cape Elizabeth Police Department for disposal from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Sept. 29.

Local police say residents should take advantage of this opportunity to clean their medicine cabinets and dispose of the unwanted medications in a safe and environmentally friendly manner.

Contact Officer Mark Dorval at 767-3323, ext. 208, for more information.

Stepping into the Sesquicentennial

Edward I. Woodbury

A 2011-2012 Cape Courier series by Ellen Van Fleet follows the development of the Civil War through the eyes of people who lived in Cape Elizabeth 150 years ago. Cape Elizabeth author Paul J. Ledman's book, "A Maine Town Responds," is the main guide. Small entries in the Courier capture the news and concerns as events unfolding outside of Cape Elizabeth thrust their way into the local consciousness. News items from the Portland Transcript are printed verbatim.

Aug. 9, 1862 – Casting a Cannon: The interesting operation of casting an 11-inch Dahlgren naval shell gun took place at the works of the Portland Co. on Thursday. Seventeen tons of iron were melted for the purpose, and it was a sight to see this fiery broth when stirred up by the workmen. It ran into the mould at a white heat, in a sparkling stream, and will take 10 days to cool. The gun will be 13.5 feet long, and will throw a round shell of 135 pounds weight, or a round shot of 185 pounds. The Portland Co. has a contract for the manufacture of 50 of these guns. [Portland Transcript]

The government made a sudden draft on our steamboats last week, taking the Montreal and Forest City, of the Portland and Boston line, and the New Brunswick of the International line, leaving but one boat on each of those routes, and the agent of the Boston line anticipates that the remaining boat may be called for. The service for which these boats are wanted is as yet a mystery. [Portland Transcript]

The Coast Guard Capt. Staples, who was being recruited to join the 17th regiment, has been ordered back to Fort Scammell, which is to be put in the highest state of defence it is capable of.

This looks as if the government means to be prepared for all emergencies. [Portland Transcript]

Aug. 12, 1862 – Thirty-five men signed for their bounty of $100 each. Joined Company E, 17th Maine Regiment. [Portland Transcript]

Aug. 14, 1862 – The Free Will Baptist society of Cape Elizabeth held a large picnic for the men of the company in the scenic Cape Lights area in the south of town. After doing justice to an excellent chowder, the men played sports before being called to order. Then, on behalf of the citizens of Cape Elizabeth, Dr. Ebenezer Hutchinson presented Lieut. George W. Fickett with a sword and sash as a token of respect and good wishes. ["A Maine Town Responds"]

Aug. 16, 1862 – Dirigo! True to her motto, the old Pine Tree State leads off in raising volunteers for the war. She is not only the first state that has raised her full quota, but she has exceeded the number assigned her by four or more companies. [Portland Transcript]

Another regiment, the 20th, is to be organized and will rendezvous at this city. The companies have already been raised. The Governor has tendered the Colonelcy of the regiment to Lieut.

Gen. Hunter says the idea of a general migration of Negroes to the North is an absurd bugbear – and he is right. [Portland Transcript]

Under the recent order from the War Department everybody between 18 and 45 – without reference to physical condition – will be subject to draft. If, after they have been drafted, they are found to be disabled, they will be exempted. Physician's certificates therefore are of no avail. [Portland Transcript]

A crashing thunder tempest passed over this city on Saturday afternoon last, during which the rain poured down in torrents. A barn filled with hay, on St. John Street, belonging to St. John Smith, was set on fire and destroyed by the lightning, and the expensive barn of Mr. Skillings in Cape Elizabeth was also burned, together with 70 tons of hay, carriages, carts, etc. Mr. Skillings' barn was recently built at the cost of $1,700, and was considered the best in the county. A horse at Libby's corner received a death stroke while a man in the vehicle remained uninjured. [Portland Transcript]

Diarrhea and dysentery have been quite fatal among the children in this city of late. Numerous households have been stricken in the loss of dear little ones, suddenly taken from them. [Portland Transcript]

Aug. 18, 1862 – The 17th Maine Volunteer Infantry Regiment was mustered in at Cape Elizabeth for three year's service.

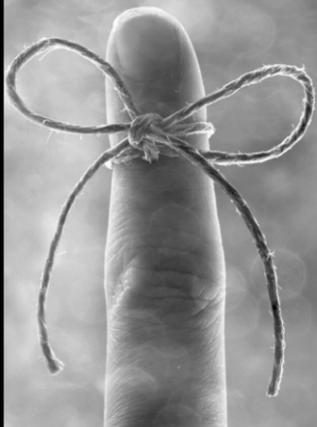

It "contained 33 Cape Elizabeth men. Company E was made up almost entirely of Cape men and was commanded by two fellow townsmen Capt. Ellis M. Sawyer and 1st Lt. George W. Fickett. ... After a brief period of training, on the 21st they left the state for Washington, D.C., and the South.

Fought in bloody engagements: Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Wapping Heights, Auburn Mills, Locust Grove, Mine Run, Wilderness, Coal Harbor, Petersburg, and Hatcher's Run." [William B. Jordan's "A History of Cape Elizabeth, Maine"]

Fall of 1862 – Ezekial Wescott, a 37-year-old farmer who lived in the northwest section of town [on current-day Westbrook Street in South Portland, just south of Broadway, which was then part of Cape Elizabeth], wrote to Adjutant Gen. Hodsdon requesting that he be offered a position.

"Having been elected Capt. of Co. A in the Militia of Maine and being anxious to go to war, I take this opportunity to request that I may be among the first detailed. – Ezekial Wescott."

The request was granted, and he was commissioned Lieutenant of Company I, 25th Maine Reg. ["A Maine Town Responds"]

Rocking a thank-you

Digital and print copies of "Aureole," a novel by 2009 Cape Elizabeth High School graduate Kate Mitchell, are available through Amazon. Set in the Upper East Side of New York City, the book follows Jess Carleton and her life among members of the wealthy Bishop family. When scheming siblings move into the same apartment building, Jess must decide what to do or lose everything she has come to treasure.

Mitchell, a senior at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn., is the daughter of Tricia and David Mitchell, who recently moved to Boston from Elizabeth Farms. At Vanderbilt, she is majoring in secondary education and English.

Harvey Melnick, the head coach at Aucocisco Coaching in Cape Elizabeth, recently earned certification as a Gestalt coach from the Gestalt International Study Center after completing training at GISC headquarters in South Wellfleet, Mass. As a coach, Melnick supports families and children in learning effective ways to relate to and interact with each other.

In 1986, Melnick and his wife Barbara opened Aucocisco Learning Achievement Center, which provides supplementary educational services, including diagnostic after-school tutoring and special education consultation. In 1994, they opened Aucocisco School, which provides services to students with special learning needs.

Cape Elizabeth resident Michael G. Messerschmidt was recently elected as a fellow in the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers, a nonprofit professional association that honors leading labor and employment attorneys. Membership, which is by nomination, honors lawyers who have demonstrated character, integrity, professional expertise and leadership.

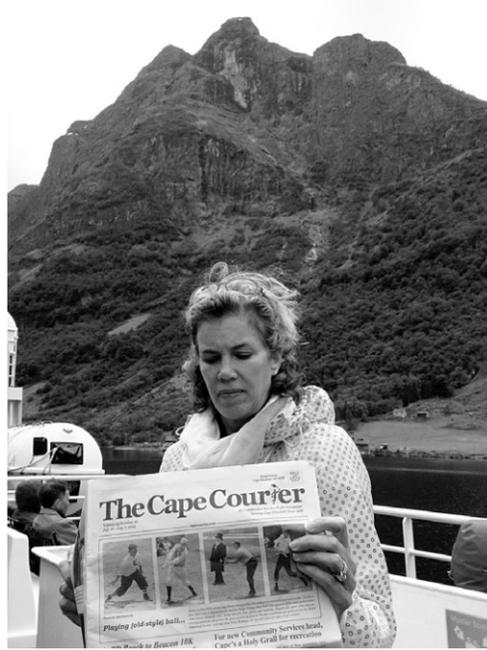

Messerschmidt is a partner and chair of the labor and employment practice group at Preti Flaherty, where he advises public and private sector employers in the fields of health care, forest products, manufacturing, retail, municipal government, transportation and communications. A former Maine Assistant Attorney General, Messerschmidt served as chief counsel to the state Department of Public Safety and also prosecuted white-collar crimes. A graduate of the University of Maine School of Law in Portland and Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass., he has received top ranking in several U.S. legal directories.

Cape Elizabeth resident Meredith Riker was named to the dean's list at Simmons College in Boston, where she is majoring in nursing.

Cape Elizabeth resident Mary Brazzell, a junior at St. Michael's College in Colchester, Vt., is one of 46 students who received grants to do research with a professor this summer. Brazzell, who is majoring in psychology, is researching college students' use of nonprescription drugs as cognitive enhancers.

Cape Elizabeth resident Travis Hayes, a part-time student at the University of Southern Maine in Gorham, was named to the dean's list for the 2011-2012 academic year.

Courier's peak experience

Former Cape Courier publisher Virginia Hanson reads Cape news last month on a Norwegian fjord with Bakkanosi peak behind her. Hanson and her husband Grant, who now live in Lake Oswego, Ore., had spent the previous week vacationing in Cape Elizabeth with their son Olin and daughter Miranda.

Carly Rapaport, a 2006 Cape Elizabeth High School alumna and a 2010 graduate of Colby College in Waterville, recently received a job promotion.

She is now executive associate director of special projects at Carney, Sandoe and Associates in Boston. The company recruits teachers and administrators for placement in private, independent schools in the U.S. and abroad.

Peter Alexander, a 2008 Cape Elizabeth High School graduate, graduated from James Cook University in Queensland, Australia, with a bachelor of science degree in tropical zoology. He will stay in Queensland for a one-year biology program, doing field research on the impact of environmental changes in the rain forest of northern Queensland on the genetic composition of several amphibian species. The son of former Cape residents, Dona and Rich Alexander, he lives in Townsville and manages several biology labs at James Cook.

Cape Elizabeth resident Abhijit Srungavarapu received first honors on the spring-semester dean's list at Clark University in Worcester, Mass., a selection that marks outstanding academic achievement.

Cape Elizabeth Middle School seventh-grader Brooke Cottrell received the first runner-up title at the Dancer's Inc. National Dance Competition last month at the Westbrook Performing Arts Center.

The competition featured young dancers from around the world who were judged by teachers and choreographers from around the U.S. during a four-day intensive dance workshop. Contestants were also judged on a dance solo which they had performed regionally within the last year.

Brooke Cottrell

Scarborough resident Molly Rogers was named "Broker of the Month" for outstanding sales in June at Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage in Cape Elizabeth.

Randall B. Hobbs, a 2008 graduate of Cape Elizabeth High School, graduated magna cum laude from Roger Williams University in Bristol, R.I., in May. The son of Jeffrey and Susan Hobbs, he received a bachelor of science degree in business management with a minor in psychology.

Tri for Preservation to be held on Aug. 19

The Cape Elizabeth Land Trust's second annual Tri for Preservation is set for Sunday, Aug. 19. The event, which will benefit land conservation in Cape Elizabeth, will begin at 7:30 a.m. at Crescent Beach State Park.

"Last year, we attracted over 300 participants and twice as many spectators and volunteers to the Tri for Preservation," CELT Executive Director Chris Franklin said. "In the process of becoming a premier Maine triathlon event, we increased awareness of the importance of land preservation in Cape Elizabeth and raised over $20,000 for CELT's ongoing 'Saving Cape's Great Places' initiative."

Options

The triathlon will include a 500-yard ocean swim along the cove of Crescent Beach. Participants then will compete in a 14.5-mile bike course, followed by a 3.1-mile run on a fire road along the shore of Crescent Beach toward Kettle Cove. Racers then will run back along Route 77.

People who do not want to run can participate in the aqua-bike competition, which will feature the same swim and bike course as the triathlon but will conclude after the bike leg of the race. People also have the option of forming teams with friends and family to compete in the races.

This year's event will offer a duathlon – a run-bike-run race. The duathlon will feature a 1.5-mile run on the hard-packed dirt fire road along Crescent Beach, a 14.5-mile bike ride and a 3-mile finishing run to the finish line.

The triathlon also will serve as a state-qualifying event for the 2013 National Senior Games competition, which will be held in Toledo, Ohio, next summer. Athletes who turned 50 years old by Dec. 31, 2011, are eligible.

Pancake breakfast

After the race, CELT and the Cape Elizabeth Lions Club will co-host a beachside pancake breakfast for all athletes, followed by an awards ceremony. The breakfast, sponsored by Hannaford, will be free to participants and available to spectators for $5. Proceeds will be split between the Land Trust and the Cape Lions, who will serve breakfast.

Race registration will include the race entry fee, breakfast, the choice of a race beach towel or T-shirt, park access for the day, and sponsor gifts. Go to www.capelandtrust.org/triathlon to register.

Contact Franklin at 767-6054 or chris@capelandtrust.org for information about the race.

113 Fund

Ten percent of net proceeds from this year's event will be donated to the newly established "113 Fund," which honors David Alan Aschauer, the Bates College economics professor who suffered distress while competing in the 2011 Tri for Preservation. Aschauer was rescued from the waters of Crescent Beach but subsequently passed away. Aschauer's daughter, Erika Rodrigue of Augusta, will race this year with bib No. 113, which Aschauer wore last year.

Tax-deductible contributions to the 113 Fund will be used to fund summer internships in the economics department at Bates College in Lewiston. Aschauer's family will match all contributions dollar for dollar up to the first $1,500.

Race participants may contribute to the fund when they register, and people can donate at <http://capelandtrust.org/triathlon>.

Cape Business Alliance collecting donations for Judy's Produce Pantry this month

Members of the Cape Business Alliance, which includes 30 businesses in town, are collecting nonperishable food items and monetary donations for Judy's Produce Pantry during the month of August.

The pantry, run by Cape Elizabeth resident Nancy Miles, provides fresh, locally grown produce free of charge to Cape residents with limited resources who want to eat healthy food. The pantry is a cooperative effort of the Cape Elizabeth United Methodist Church, Jordan's Farm, Maxwell's Farm and two Cape Elizabeth community gardens.

"The pantry is grateful for the many local farmers and families that donate fresh produce, but there is a great need for monetary and nonperishable food donations," a CBA press release states.

People who want to make donations can drop them off at the following businesses: Alewives Farm, Ann Veronica, Apple Tree School, Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage, Cape Dental Associates, Coastal Rehab, Coastal Wellness, Cynthia Dill Law Office, Funny Farm, Inn By The Sea, Jordan's Farm, Kettle Cove Take Out, Key Bank, Leslie Girmscheid, L.P. Murray and Sons, Maine Lobster Boys, Paula Banks Consulting, Polly's Hair Care Center, Purpoodock Club, RE/MAX Oceanside, Shore Things, Tara Gifts, Ted Smith Creative Services, the Cookie Jar, the Lobster Shack, the Local Buzz, Village Crossings, Two Lights Home Care, Visionary Vessels From Maine, Woodlands Assisted Living/ Cape Memory Care.

Checks should be made out to "Judy's Produce Pantry."

CBA, which formed in 2010, seeks to promote Cape Elizabeth businesses and encourage new business endeavors in town.

Fort Williams Arboretum workday on Aug. 16

Members of the Arboretum at Fort Williams Committee, who are working to install a series of garden landscapes at the Fort, will hold a volunteer work session from 9 a.m. to noon on Thursday, Aug. 16. The group will do weeding and clearing.

Volunteers should bring gloves, garden tools and water but leave children and dogs at home. Work clothes are recommended.

The session will be held rain or shine but not if weather conditions are severe. The group will meet at the Cliffside site, located at the head off the Cliff Walk path opposite the park's parade grounds parking area.

Contact volunteer coordinator Janet Villiotte at volunteer@arboretumatfortwilliams.com for more information.

Engine 1 Co. Labor Day Art Show on Sept. 2

Fort Williams Park will be transformed into a gallery during Labor Day weekend.

The 45th annual Engine 1 Co. Labor Day Art Show, which will feature more than 100 artists displaying works of diverse styles, is set for 10 a.m.-4 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 2, with a Monday, Sept. 3, rain date. Admission and parking will be free.

Artists interested in participating in the show must apply. The registration fee is

Class of 1982 plans 30th reunion on Sept. 1

Members of Cape Elizabeth High School's class of 1982 plan a 30th reunion on Saturday, Sept. 1, at Bubba's Sulky Lounge, 92 Portland St., Portland.

Bubba's will be closed to all but CEHS reunion guests that night. Friends of 1982 grads and teachers and classmates from other years will be welcome but need to reserve and purchase tickets in advance.

Contact class member Inger Pols at ingerapols@gmail.com or 899-7939 for more information.

Cape resident Flynn now Rotary president

Cape Elizabeth resident Bob Flynn is the new president of the South Portland/Cape Elizabeth Rotary Club and will serve through July 1, 2013.

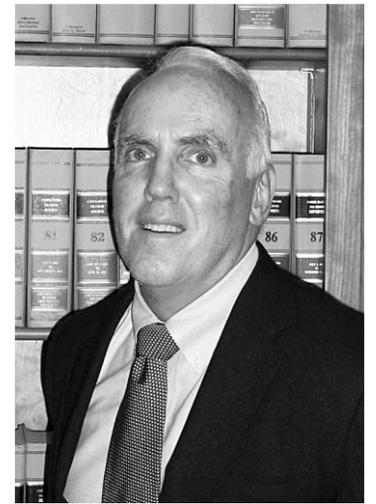

A town resident for more than 40 years, Flynn says his focus as Rotary president will be expanding local initiatives to aid veterans and programs that assist children and families in need or at risk.

Under Flynn, Rotary also will work to develop a mentoring program for Cape Elizabeth High School and South Portland High School students and will continue to work closely with students involved in Rotary programs at both schools.

Students in Cape's Interact/Volunteer Club volunteer with people in need and hold food, clothing, toy, toiletry, and pet-supply drives. In the summer, CEHS and SPHS students involved in the Rotary Youth Leadership Awards program participate in leadership training.

During the coming year, Rotary members also will continue to collaborate on community service projects with Cape Elizabeth and South Portland business people, and the club will continue to support Rotary's international humanitarian efforts.

Other members of Rotary's 2012-2013 board include immediate past president Marge Barker, President-Elect Ellie Spheh, Vice President Kathy Cotter, Secretary Paul Butler, Treasurer Nancy Irving, Club

Bob Flynn

Administrator Bill Phillips, Community Service Director Dave Bagdasarian, Membership Director Scott Irving, New Generations Chair Jim Russell, and International Director Chuck Redman.

Rotary is an international service club with a mission to bring together business and professional leaders to provide humanitarian services, encourage high ethical standards in all vocations, and help build goodwill and peace in the world.

Contact Flynn at 207-767-7388 or rflynn13@aol.com for information, or visit www.sp-cs-rotary.org or www.rotary.org.

'Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat' to open Portland Players' 2012-2013 season

The musical, "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat," will kick off the Portland Players' 2012-2013 season on Friday, Sept. 14. The show, which will open at 7:30 p.m., will run through Sunday, Sept. 30, at the theater, located at 420 Cottage Rd. in South Portland.

In the musical, an adaption of the biblical story of Joseph, Jacob's favored son, Joseph, is betrayed by his jealous brothers, sold into slavery, and driven to Egypt. Though beset with adversity, he perseveres through wit and faith and becomes the governor of Egypt, second only to the Pharaoh. Michael Donovan directs the production, which features music by Andrew Lloyd Webber and lyrics by Tim Rice.

Evening performances this season will open at 7:30 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays, and 2:30 p.m. matinees are planned on Sundays.

Tickets are $20 for adults, $18 for senior citizens, and $15 for students, who must have identification.

Call 799-7337 or email info@portland-players.org for tickets or more information.

Musical storyteller offers big dreams for little ones on Aug. 9

Musical storyteller, Jennifer Armstrong will lead families and young children in singing and dreaming together at 11 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 9, in the library's Community Room.

Her program, "Keep Your Dreams In Sight," features music and stories that celebrate joyful dreaming with bagpipe, fiddle, banjo and dancing puppets.

If the weather is pleasant, the program will take place in the library's backyard, which can be accessed through the Community Room. Registration is not necessary!

'Moon Crazy' fun blasts off on Aug. 14 with Jackson Gillman

Put on your imagination caps and blast off with the "Stand-Up Chameleon" Jackson Gillman at 6:30 p.m. Aug. 14 on the library's front lawn.

Gillman will present his show, "Moon Crazy," featuring captivating songs and stories about the moon. This event is for children and families. Bring a picnic dinner.

Stained-glass mosaics by Cape's Edwards on display this month

Stained-glass mosaic pieces by Cape Elizabeth artist Amanda Edwards are on display at Thomas Memorial Library through August.

Edwards has been a featured artist at the Somerville Museum's "Art of Mosaic" show and has done art installations for numerous hospitals and public spaces. Her shows have been a popular stop along Portland's Art Walk in 2010 and 2011.

"Simply put, I love glass. I love the textures, variety of colors, shapes, sizes, reflections, even the sound it makes when I'm scoring and cutting it," Edwards said. "Glass allows me to take a thousand little pieces of color and turn them into a flowing representation of my very active imagination."

"Every piece of glass is put into place with purpose, intent, joy, love, and inspiration behind it."

Visit www.mandolinmosaics.com for more information.

Library welcomes new staff members

If you've been to the library lately, you may have seen some new faces behind the desk.

The library received more than 80 applicants for its three recent openings. After careful review and a long interviewing process, three new library assistants were hired to begin work during the last two weeks of July.

The new staff members come to the library with experience working in other small-town public libraries.

Brittany Kasha, who spends most of her time at the circulation desk, formerly worked at the Farmington Public Library.

Cassy Kane, who works at both the circulation desk and the children's reference desk, began her library experience at the Tamaqua (Pa.) Public Library.

And Rick LePage, who will be taking over some regular story times, as well as heading up some new children's programs, formerly worked at the Merrimack (N.H.) Public Library.

For program details:

'West African Rhythms and Songs' on front lawn Aug. 21

In another of the library's outdoor summer concerts, Annegret Baier will present "West African Rhythms and Songs" at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 21.

Baier will perform on authentic hand drums from West Africa and a variety of traditional percussion instruments. The audience will be invited to participate through singing, hand-clapping and dancing.

This show is for all ages.

Craft programs continue in August

Spaces are still available for the library's two final craft programs of the summer.

"Dream Makers: Cool Crafts," for 9- to 12-year-olds, will meet at 3 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 15.

"Follow Your Dreams: Story & Craft Program" for 5- to 8-year-olds will meet at 3 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 22.

Visit the library's website for more information: www.ThomasMemorialLibrary.org.

Library closed on Aug. 16 for staff development

The library, as well as town offices, will be closed on Thursday, Aug. 16 for the town's annual staff development day.

No fines will be assessed on this day. The library will reopen as usual at 9 a.m. Friday, Aug. 17.

Why Is Now A Good Time To Sell Your House?

Here at RE/MAX Oceanside we are concerned because nationwide inventory is down 20.6% from last year, and that number is even higher in Cape Elizabeth. Last year we didn't have as many buyers to purchase the inventory but this spring's surge has depleted the local area. Almost every day people call our office asking if we have homes to sell in Cape Elizabeth. We certainly do but not nearly enough to keep up with demand.

If you have ever thought about selling your house now is the time to call us or stop by for your FREE home value report. One of our experienced Realtors® will put together a customized report for your house and review it with you at no charge.

Parents collect items for Ledgemere

By Wendy Keeler

Two parents of students at Ledgemere Country Day School, where lightning struck a tree and did damage on July 24, have started a collection drive to replace toys, books, art supplies and costumes that were destroyed at the Mitchell Road school.

“(We) want to help school owner Diane Nicholson get the school back up and running so she can open on time in early September,” parent Lynne Cross said.

Items needed include books and toys suitable for 2-5-year-olds, Legos, Lincoln Logs, stuffed animals, glue sticks, crayons, markers, pipe cleaners, yarn, ribbon and glitter. Cross and parent Rachel Duffy also hope to replace costumes and theme-play accessories for doctors, veterinarians, farmers, princes, princesses, astronauts and pirates.

The women have set up collection boxes in Cape Elizabeth at the Local Buzz in Pond Cove Plaza; Cross's home, 13 Hamlin St.; the Cookie Jar Pastry Shop, 554 Shore Road; and in Portland at VIA Agency, 619 Congress St.

On July 24, after a bolt of lightning struck a tree on the school playground, a current from the strike traveled along a chain link fence to a storage building, setting the building on fire and completely destroying the supplies inside it. The current continued along the fence and ignited the school house, where a sprinkler system put out the fire. Water damage inside the school destroyed art supplies, books and toys.

Nicholson is moved by the support.

“I am so appreciative of the efforts of Lynn and Rachel. Their devotion and love of Ledgemere is unbelievably touching and means so much to me and all of the Ledgemere kids whose lives they are enriching through their hard work,” Nicholson said. “Thank you to everyone who has helped us recover from this unfortunate event.”

CEEF to present annual staff awards on Aug. 30

The Cape Elizabeth Education Foundation will present two staff awards the morning of Thursday, Aug. 30, in the Cape Elizabeth High School cafeteria. All are invited. The event's starting time will be included in the Aug. 22 issue of The Cape Courier.

The Tim Thompson Award, established by Cape residents Nancy and Tim Thompson in memory of their son, Timmy, who passed away in the summer of 2004 after graduating from CEHS, goes to a staff member in a mentoring position who has made a difference in the lives of students during the past school year. The second award, named in honor of retired CEHS math teacher Elaine Brownell, goes to a staff member for outstanding implementation of a CEEF grant.

Both awards include a $2,000 cash gift and a glass apple. The nonprofit CEEF seeks to fund innovative programs that fall outside the Cape school budget. Go to www.ceef.us for more information.

“Wizard of Oz” to be fall production at CEHS

Cape Elizabeth High School's fall production will be the musical, “The Wizard of Oz.” The show will open in November.

“Pond Cove will be involved, and senior citizens will join in,” CEHS Theater Department Director Richard Mullen said. “Under the student leadership of Griffin Carpenter and the musical wizardry of Flash Allen, ‘Oz’ will be a big show with all the bells and whistles,” said Mullen, who will direct.

Contact Mullen at rmullen@capeelizabethschools.org for more information.

Cape alumni to take on CEHS soccer players Aug. 17 at 12th annual Kevin Brady Game

By Wendy Keeler

The 12th annual Kevin Brady Memorial Alumni Soccer Game will be held Friday Aug. 17, at Hannaford Field. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

The men's alumni team will include some high school All-Americans, former and current college players, and players with professional experience.

'Illustrious alumni'

"While most of the alumni team will be made up of players from graduating classes of the 1990s and 2000s, expect to watch a number of illustrious alumni from the 1980s and even the 1970s," organizer John Brady said. "Don't consider this game to be an 'exhibition' game. The 11 previous contests have been hard-fought battles. Both teams will definitely be playing to win."

Boys' varsity Coach Ben Raymond considers the game a "perfect opportunity for a final warmup" for his team's upcoming season, which will start later in the month. As in years past, there will be skills events featuring Cape Elizabeth Soccer Club members. The events will showcase the skills of young Cape athletes, who will perform alongside varsity players.

'Always a pleasure'

"It's always a pleasure watching players from the past, present and the future play at such a wonderful venue," Brady said. "My wife and I are sure it brings great pride to our son, Kevin. It certainly does for me and my family."

Kevin Brady Spirit Award

The event, sponsored by the Cape Elizabeth Soccer Boosters, is the primary fundraiser for the Kevin Brady Spirit Award and Scholarship.

The award and scholarship are given each year in memory of Cape Elizabeth High School soccer player, Kevin Brady, a member of the CEHS Class of 2001 who passed away the summer before he graduated. Recipients include a boy and girl varsity player who best exemplify the spirit with which Kevin played the game.

Fund

Donations collected at the game and proceeds from the snack bar and 50/50 drawing will go to the Kevin Brady Fund. To date, more than $25,000 in scholarships has been given to graduating CEHS girls and boys. The Kevin Brady Fund was also a major contributor to the construction of Hannaford Field.

Golf tournament

"Last year's Kevin Brady Golf Tournament was such a huge success there is talk about doing it again," Brady said, referring to the second annual Kevin Brady Gold Tournament held Oct. 8, 2011, at the Purpoodock Club.

Alumni players who want to play in the Aug. 17 game should contact Brady at 233-7300 or john@thebayagency.com. Contact Brady also for information about making a donation to the fund, or about the golf tournament.

Softball champions!

Bottle drive on Sept. 15 for field hockey teams

Cape Elizabeth High School's field hockey teams will hold their annual bottle drive from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Sept. 15. Players will canvass Cape neighborhoods collecting bottles.

Money raised through the drive will help fund costs not covered by the school budget, including pay for an assistant varsity coach and expenses for goal repair and goalie equipment.

Residents are asked to leave their bottles bagged for pickup at the end of their driveways by 9 a.m. or drop them off at the Cape Elizabeth High School parking lot between 9 a.m. and noon.

Email cefieldhockey@gmail.com or call Impy Altnauer at 510-7728 for more information about the drive.

Two Cape athletes, their travel lacrosse team win tournament

Two Cape Elizabeth lacrosse players contributed to the success of their under-16-year-old 207Lacrosse travel team this summer. Curtis Alexander, who plays defense, and Riley Pillsbury, a midfielder, helped their team win the 2012 Sound Lacrosse Summer Classic last month at Fairfield University in Fairfield, Conn.

"Riley and Curtis are having great seasons," said Cape Elizabeth resident Deke Andrew, who heads 207Lacrosse, which is based at Riverside Athletic Center in Portland.

Alexander will be a Cape Elizabeth High School sophomore this fall, and Pillsbury will be a CEHS freshman.

Cape football team, boosters plan festival on Aug. 25, three clinics for young players

Cape Elizabeth High School football players and boosters will offer more than football in coming weeks.

Festival

A festival featuring food, music, contests and activities is planned from 12:30 to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 25, at Gull Crest Field. The event will include a tailgate cookout, a punt/pass/kick competition, a coach and player dunk, bungee runs in which participants can find out whether they are faster than a football player, a football toss, and a raffle.

Admission to the event, $10 per person or $25 per family, will cover food, music and games, but raffle tickets will be sold separately.

At the festival and at home games throughout the season, boosters will sell Cape football hats, socks, sweats, T-shirts, and novelty items. Contact Gwyneth Maguire at capefootball@mailinator.com for more information.

Clinics

The Cape Elizabeth High School football team plans three clinics for players entering grades 4-8. The clinics focus on basic football fundamentals, including stance, alignment, blocking, throwing, receiving, running, punting and kicking. Special attention will be given to proper technique for safe and effective tackling. Other topics include player safety, nutrition and proper stretching and training.

Clinics are planned from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Aug. 25; from 4 to 7 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 10; and from 9 a.m. to noon, on Monday, Oct. 8.

Each session costs $30, and the fee includes a T-shirt. Go to www.capefootball.com to register or for more information about the clinics. Contact CEHS football coach Aaron Filieo at capeelizabethfootball@gmail.com for more information.

The football season will kick off on Aug. 31, when Cape plays Wells High School at 7 p.m. at Hannaford Field. CEHS will take on York High School at 7 p.m. on Sept. 7 at York, Lake Region High School at 7 p.m. on Sept. 14 at Hannaford Field, Falmouth High School at 7 p.m. on Sept. 21 at Falmouth, Westbrook High School at 7 p.m. on Sept. 28 at Hannaford Field, Marshwood High School at 7 p.m. on Oct. 5 at Marshwood, Fryeburg High School at 7 p.m. on Oct. 12 at Hannaford Field, and Mountain Valley High School at 7 p.m. on Oct. 19 at MVHS in Rumford. Playoffs will begin on Oct. 26, ending with the state championship on Nov. 17 at Fitzpatrick Stadium in Portland. Go to <http://football.capeelizabethschools.org/schedules> for more information.

Breakfast book talk planned on Aug. 25

St. Bartholomew Parish in Cape Elizabeth, along with Roman Catholic parishes in Scarborough and South Portland, plans a beach breakfast and book discussion on Saturday, Aug. 25, from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. on the grassy knoll at Kettle Cove.

The group will read the Rev. James Martin's book, "Between Heaven and Mirth: Why Joy, Humor, and Laughter are at the Heart of the Spiritual Life."

"Father Martin assures us that God wants us to experience joy, to cultivate a sense of holy humor, and to laugh at life's absurdities, not to mention our own humanity," said Kathy Williamson, the parish's pastoral life coordinator. "... He shows us how the parables are often the stuff of comedy, and how the gospels reveal Jesus to be a man with a palpable sense of joy and even playfulness. In fact, Father Martin argues compellingly, thinking about a Jesus without a sense of humor may be close to heretical."

Participants should bring their copies of the book to the gathering. Copies are available through Amazon and The Abbey book shop in Scarborough.

If the weather is rainy, the event will be held at St. Bartholomew.

Registration is required. Contact Williamson at 799-5528, extension 102, or kathy.williamson@portlanddiocese.org to register, or register online at www.saintbarts.com.

THE 3.8% TAX ON HOME SALES

Clarification on the impact of the Affordable Care Act on the sale of homes.

Effective January 1, 2013, a 3.8% tax on income from all interest, dividends, rents (net of expenses), and net capital gains is intended to help fund health care.

A 3.8% tax will be imposed on some income generated from some home sales. For this tax to affect the sale of your personal residence, in which you have lived at least 2 of the 5 years prior to its sale, you must:

- have a yearly income in excess of $200,000 as an individual, $250,000 as a couple.

AND

- realize a gain on the home's sale in excess of the capital gains exclusion, currently $250,000 for individuals, $500,000 for couples.

Only the amount in excess of the capitals gains exclusion is subject to the 3.8% tax.

Hazardous waste/e-waste disposal still going strong in Cape

Jessica Simpson,
Cape Elizabeth Recycling Committee

Since May 2000, Cape Elizabeth residents have had the opportunity to dispose of their household hazardous waste and electronic waste free of charge, during the annual Hazardous Waste/E-Waste Disposal Day.

The Public Works Department contracts out the service, using a vendor specially trained and licensed for hazardous waste collection. Like last year, a survey questionnaire was given to each driver to assess their disposal items, the length of time the waste was held, and if participants would be willing to pay a fee for future disposal.

Overall, survey results indicated good participation and a willingness to pay a reasonable fee for the service, if required.

Household hazardous waste refers to wastes generated at home that are hazardous in nature, meaning they contain one of the following characteristics: caustic/corrosive - flammable/ignitable - toxic/poisonous - explosive - reactive.

Electronic waste refers to computer monitors, computer central processing units (CPUs), console TVs and flat screen TVs. According to the Maine Department of Environmental Protection, a typical processor and monitor contains five to eight pounds of lead and heavy metals such as cadmium, mercury and arsenic.

Flat screen TVs and monitors do not contain lead but do contain mercury. All of these items pose a formidable solid waste challenge, due to ever-increasing numbers and environmental risk.

From the 329 surveys collected, the greatest number of items was oil-based paint (135), followed by solvents and cleaners (123), and fluorescent bulbs (71). Pesticides (62), batteries (59), insect sprays (49), lubricants (48) and degreasers (35) were other items of note. TVs and monitors led the electronic disposal (51), followed by generic E-waste (30), computers (28), and printers (9).

Cape residents who wish to dispose of their electronic waste during other times of the year can do so at the recycling center for the fees listed in the box at right.

It is noteworthy that 67 percent of respondents indicated

Console TVs	$15/each
Non-Console TVs	$5/each
Computer Monitors (All Sizes)	$3/item
CPUs & Laptops	$3/item
Desktop Office Equipment	$3/item

they were willing to pay a fee for household hazardous waste disposal, if required. Forty-five percent of those indicating an amount were willing to pay $10 or less for the service, and 35 percent did not indicate any amount.

Other survey results showed that 57 percent of respondents had held their waste for 1 to 5 years, 27 percent for more than 5 years and 16 percent for 1 year or less.

This reflects our own timeline for going through the house and garage to safely and responsibly dispose of hazardous materials.

As always, let us remember to "Reduce, Reuse, Recycle."

Path

current edge of pavement and the front edge of the path," Malley said.

Crossings

The path is located on the inland side of Shore Road except in two areas: the portion along Fort Williams Park, and the section that begins south of Julie Ann Lane and runs to the Town Center.

The crossing areas will be marked.

"In both sections, there will be pavement markings, and down at the Fort Williams end, there will be pedestrian-activated lights that alert cars that pedestrians are crossing the road," O'Meara said. "At the crossing just south of Julie Ann Lane there will be no lights because there's increased sight distance [for viewing pedestrians] there."

Rules

So far, the town has not established rules for the path.

"There's no item on any agenda to make official rules for the Shore Road Path, and in the absence of any specific rules adopted by the Town Council, I suggest people treat it like a sidewalk," O'Meara said. "We don't have rules for specific sidewalks."

Town officials are hearing mostly good things about the path from Cape Elizabeth residents.

"We have people coming into the office saying they were opposed to the project but it's coming out a lot better than they thought it would," O'Meara said. Malley has also heard positive reports.

"People have said, 'You know, this isn't as intrusive as we thought it would be.'"

Reminder

Both O'Meara and Malley remind residents that the project is still in progress.

"We're still in full construction mode here, and we still need people's patience," O'Meara said.

"There are traffic delays, and summer is a busy season," said Malley, adding that lane closures will continue past Labor Day.

O'Meara encourages residents with concerns or questions to contact Malley at 799-4151 or robert.malley@capeelizabeth.org.

"Bob Malley is the consummate public servant, and he's taking calls and he's available to answer people's questions," O'Meara said.

"We're going to make this work for everyone."

The Town Council plans to hold a dedication ceremony for the path in October. The Courier will publish details after plans are finalized.

The Town Council approved the path in 2010. For the project, the town received a federal grant of $729,000. SAFE, a citizens group, donated $107,000, and over the last seven years, the town has allocated $160,000 from several sources. The total, which includes expenses for all planning, design, construction, construction engineering and contingency, comes to $996,000, Town Manager Mike McGovern said.

Ultimately, the project is expected to cost less than anticipated, he said.

"By the time the project is closed out, it is anticipated that the final cost will be about $956,000, or $40,000 under budget, and the net amount that will have come from the local property tax will be about $35,000, all of which was spent prior to the construction phase," he said.

Equipment from Thyng Paving LLC rolls asphalt onto the Shore Road Path on July 30 near the Fort Williams Park entrance to the tennis courts.

"Sleeping on a mattress that's not organic scares the snickers out of me."

You're right. The modern family should be sleeping on organic mattresses because the typical mattress you buy contains:

- Polyurethane
- Stain-resistant and flame-retardant chemicals
- Cotton grown with pesticides
- Latex made from petroleum

Guess how many of those are in an organic mattress? Zero. And ... it's hypoallergenic.

Cape grad gets wheels

Patrick Gallant, a 2007 Cape Elizabeth High School graduate, recently opened Charles-towne Bound, a limousine company in Charleston, S.C. Gallant graduated in 2010 from the College of Charleston with a degree in business/hospitality tourism management.

Julie Rapaport, the daughter of Cape Elizabeth residents Lisa Tripler and Dan Rapaport, was recently promoted to vice president of production and business development at the Weinstein Co. in Los Angeles. Rapaport, who graduated from Waynflete School in 2002 and from Tufts University in Medford, Mass., in 2006, started her career in the mailroom at the William Morris Agency. In 2008, she joined TWC, where she worked her way from assisting the chief operating officer to director of the production and business development department.

She is the granddaughter of Elsebeth and Robert Tripler of Trundy Road.

The Weinstein Company's films, "The King's Speech" and "The Artist," won Academy Awards for Best Picture the past two years.

Julie Rapaport

Two Cape Elizabeth students were named to the dean's list at Worcester Polytechnic Institute in Worcester, Mass.

Samuel Eisenberg is a sophomore majoring in biomedical engineering. Sam Naseef is a sophomore majoring in robotics engineering.

Cape Elizabeth resident Tom Tinsman has joined Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage. A licensed broker since 1977, Tinsman previously owned two real estate agencies, ERA Tom Tinsman and Close to Coast Real Estate.

Tom Tinsman

Cape Elizabeth resident Aaron Brogan was named to the dean's list for the 2011-2012 academic year at the University of Chicago, where he is majoring in political science and environmental studies.

Cape Elizabeth resident Matthew Feeman, the son of Beth Feeman and Robert Feeman, was named to the spring-term dean's list at Hartwick College in Oneonta, N.Y., where he is majoring in computer science.

Cape Elizabeth High School graduate Russell Cotter Hamerski was named to the dean's list for the spring semester at Florida State University in Tallahassee, where he is majoring in mechanical engineering. This fall, he will be a junior.

Veterinarian Ginger Browne Johnson, a 1992 Cape Elizabeth High School graduate, recently bought The Veterinary Center of Cape Elizabeth on Ocean House Road from Lynda Bond, who owned the practice for 29 years.

Johnson, who serves as head veterinarian at the new Veterinary and Rehabilitation Center, practiced in the greater Boston area for more than eight years. Most recently, she was the owner of MVP Vet, a mobile veterinary practice based in Stoughton, Mass. For the past three years, she also worked with Bond on a part-time basis.

In addition to continuing the center's general medicine and surgery practice, Johnson adds her own interests and expertise.

"Services such as dentistry, behavior management and rehabilitation will improve each animal's quality of life," Johnson said.

A graduate of the Cummings School of Veterinary Medicine at Tufts University in North Grafton, Mass., Johnson attended Brown University in Providence, R.I., and the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston before attending veterinary school.

Johnson and her husband, Greg, have two daughters, Hadley and Cora, who will enter Pond Cove School in the fall.

Bond plans to open a mobile alternative care practice, Energetic Veterinary Health Care, which will offer care through traditional Chinese medicine with acupuncture and herbs, homeopathy, western herbal medicine, quantum energy, and laser therapy.

Ginger Browne Johnson

Cape Elizabeth resident Elena Castro was named to dean's list for the spring semester at St. Mary's College of Maryland in St. Mary's City.

Sullivan James Falk, the son of Erin and Christopher Falk of Falmouth, was born June 28, weighing 8 pounds, 1 ounce.

He is the first grandchild of Cape residents Jennifer and Bob Falk of Spoon-drift Lane. His father is a 2000 graduate of Cape Elizabeth High School.

Sullivan James Falk

Sintayehu Taye, who moved to the United States from Ethiopia in 2002, graduated in May from the University of Virginia in Charlottesville with a degree in international relations. Taye started school in Portland and graduated from Cushing Academy in Ashburnham, Mass.

He and his brother Ayalew have earned many track honors since the two started running in 2002. In Cape Elizabeth, the boys' home is with Diane and Bill Tyler.

Sintayehu Taye

Two Cape Elizabeth residents graduated from Hobart and William Smith Colleges in Geneva, N.Y., this spring.

Tess E. Wiggins earned a bachelor of arts degree in environmental studies and urban studies and studied in Vietnam.

Alex S. Witherell received a bachelor of arts degree in biochemistry.

Cape Elizabeth resident Blair Griffin recently received a bachelor of arts degree in management from Simmons College in Boston, Mass., where she was named to the dean's list for the spring semester.
